President's Message

Welcome, everyone, to The Lost Season!

It's an incredible honor to welcome you to our second show of the 2025-2026 season. After a long wait, we are finally bringing the shows lost during the pandemic to the stage.

This performance is a celebration of our community's resilience and a testament to the dedication of everyone who refused to let these stories stay lost. Our cast, crew, and committed volunteers have poured their hearts and souls into this performance, and it's because of their hard work that we can share its magic with you.

As a volunteer-driven organization, we are always looking for new volunteers to join our team. If you're interested in learning about musical theatre and helping to create memorable experiences, there's a place for you here. Your attendance tonight makes a huge difference, and if you are able, please consider contributing more than the price of admission. Anything you can give will go a long way to helping us continue to bring these stories to life.

Thank you for continuing to support the arts! And a special thanks to all of you for supporting FRC—we would not be on this stage were it not for the support of our friends, family, and patrons. We hope you have a fantastic time. Enjoy the show!

Director's Note

Summer in Beaumont-sur-Mer... The night is warm. The trees are in bloom... except it's winter in Calgary. The night is cold. And the trees are laden with snow. Sounds like the perfect time for a little getaway to the French Riviera!

When FRC first approached me about directing this production I'll admit I was a little uncertain. I wasn't deeply familiar with either the show or the 1988 movie, but more so I honestly wasn't sure if this was something I wanted. As is often the case I was dealing with a bad case of burnout after years of back to back shows followed by the sudden stop of the pandemic (something familiar to this show, which was 3 weeks into rehearsal when the first wave of lockdowns hit). I wasn't sure if theatre was part of my life any more, but the universe conspired and declared it was time to give it a shot again, and so I entered the process with one goal.

To rediscover my joy in theatre.

And what a joy it has been. From connecting with new friends to reconnecting with old. Exploring the physicality of slapstick comedy, world building, telling stories, and finding what inspires us (seriously, I love a deep dive into source material and if you're ever in the mood for a good 60's romp, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels is actually a remake of 1964's Bedtime Story starring David Niven and Marlon Brando, and it's WELL worth checking out!)

In amongst all my research I remember in my early days of it coming across an article or review of some sort talking bout how relevant the show was and how interesting it was to examine the socioeconomic situations that may lead to someone engage in con artistry... which is certainly A take, possibly even a hot one. But like, no, don't do that. I mean, I am absolutely a raging leftist and definitely encourage you to put thought and conversation into our current socioeconomic climate because it is a MESS, but that's not what you're here for tonight. Tonight is about escape. It's about sitting back and being entertained for a couple of hours with some fun, lighthearted comedy, and spectacular music.

I cannot fully express how grateful I am to everyone on the team, cast, and orchestra, who came together to make this happen, I'd almost forgotten just how many pieces there are in a puzzle this large. Not only have they all contributed to pulling together what I believe is one of the most fun shows I've ever had the opportunity to be a part of, but they also succeeded in achieving goal number 1. So please join our gang of scoundrels as we journey to Beaumont-sur-Mer, and I hope tonight that you too are able to rediscover your own joy in theatre.

Meet the Cast

ADAM NORTON (Ensemble / Andre Understudy)

Adam Norton is pleased to be performing in his first production with FRC. Living in Halifax for twelve years, he wrote such works as Dat Dere Sorcerer of Chéticamp and O Boston Tree, and directed many shows including the Glace Bay Miners' Museum and The Murder Room. He is delighted to be returning to Calgary and to musical theatre. Adam is a lawyer by day, and not one at night as they close the Courts.

ALEX HIATT (Christine Colgate)

"Here I am!" Alex is so excited to be onstage with FRC for Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. Playing Christine has been a chance to chase Great Big Stuff, discover that Nothing Is Too Wonderful To Be True (or so it seems), and prove that a little Love In Your Legs can get you almost anywhere. Alex's most recent stage credit was Cinderella - Into the Woods (Untold Stories). She sends huge thanks to the cast, creative team, her husband, and her family for always being in on the plan. She hopes you enjoy the glamour, the twists, and all the wonderfully dirty rotten fun!

AMANDA CALDWELL (Ensemble / Muriel Understudy)

Amanda's love for musical theatre started young and has carried her through everything from rock anthems and opera to gospel and choral work, including channeling Elsa to sing "Let It Go" with the Big Rock Singers in Okotoks. Following her FRC and Calgary debut in Rock of Ages, she's excited to be back for Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, adding a touch of glamour and plenty of heart to the stage. She's deeply grateful for this cast, crew, and the joy of building a show together.

CHRIS WILLOTT (Lawrence Jameson)

Having loved the movie as a kid, Chris was super-excited to play Lawrence when cast in 2020... duh duh duh... Well, here we are 5 years later and the excitement has only grown! A Math teacher by day and father of 3, Chris has performed in over 20 FRC productions (starting in the 90s!) and loves every minute of it.

FRANCESCA DUMITRU (Ensemble / Jolene Understudy)

This is Francesca's first show with FRC, and she is thrilled to be a part of this amazing cast. Previous credits include Spamalot (Lady of the Lake), and The Wizard of Oz (Wicked Witch), both productions at Robert Thirsk High School. She loves all things music and theatre and continues to pursue the arts creatively. Enjoy the show!

GIANLUCA BUONINCONTRI (Ensemble)

Gianluca has been in drama throughout all of high school and is very happy to be able to have the opportunity to continue with theatre. Gianluca hopes to one day become an actor/director and to hopefully share his love of acting with everyone.

Meet the Cast

After a decade hiatus from the stage, Janey is eager to be stepping back into the world of musical theatre. Some of Janey's credits include playing Mayzie LaBird in her shower's production of Seussical and Natalie Goodman in her car's production of Next to Normal. Janey feels it's been a real treat to work with the other people in this program, and she is so thankful for their guidance and wisdom as they've acted, sang, and danced their way through the rehearsal process together.

JASON GOETHALS (Ensemble)

He started out doing music and orchestra parts, but has been moving towards more onstage singing and acting roles. This is his fourth show already this season, with performances including a villainous acting debut in Workshop Theatre's production of Spider's Web, and bringing multi-instrumental madness to the stage in Misfit Theatre's Dads: The Musical. Joseph is very excited to be in his third show with FRC, and his first show onstage!

KEVANN CARTER (Jolene Oakes / Ensemble)

Kevann is delighted to take the stage in her third FRC show. Previous to Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Kevann played The Beggar Woman in Sweeney Todd and appeared as a soloist in The Stephen Sondheim Revue. Kevann is also a classically-trained singer, a hobbyist pole dancer, and a retired professional wrestler. (Yes, really).

KIM DELISLE (Ensemble)

Kim is thrilled to be part of the scheming ensemble in Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. Past credits include touring with Jubilations as Megan in Runaway Bridesmaids, singing on Broadway in NYC with Mary Poppins, and RENT with Summerstock Theatre. Kim also has a background in show choir and vocal jazz, having competed internationally from New York all the way to China. Kim would like to thank her incredible Fiance, Alex for supporting her dreams and taking care of their fur babies, as well as to her mom for being her #1 fan from the start. Thanks for supporting live theatre.. and watch your wallet.

LIBBY SENFF (Muriel Eubanks)

She can't tell you how proud she is to be a member of the FRC family and the local theatre and music community. Perhaps you've seen her in a previous performance. Have you seen her? She's sure you've seen her. On stage in Rock of Ages (FRC) and Beauty and the Beast (Painted Fish)? Lead singer of Calgary band Machine Gun Rabbit?
